

The Plaza Theatre

A 501(C)3 Non-Profit Corporation
P.O. Box 1067
Wharton, Texas 77488
979-282-2226
whartonplazatheatre.org

CHARACTER DESCRIPTIONS: RIPCORD

Auditions: February 9th and 11th at 6PM, The Plaza Theatre

Abby Binder:

60s-80s female, snide, stubborn, witty. She is not above speaking her mind even if it means offending anyone and everyone. She is a resident of the Bristol Place Senior Living Facility.

Marilyn Dunne:

60s-80s female, generally happy and optimistic. She is sweet, but capable of extreme levels of mischief, having had to survive an abusive marriage with her attitude intact. She is a resident of the Bristol Place Senior Living Facility.

Scotty:

20s-late 30s male, nurse at the Bristol Place Senior Living Facility. He genuinely likes the residents and tries to do a good job. In his spare time, he is a struggling actor.

Benjamin, Lewis, and Clown:

30s-40s male, plays multiple roles including a flight/jump instructor and Abby's estranged, ex-addict son. Actor needs to be able to jump between varying characters easily.

Colleen, and Woman in White:

30s-40s female, plays two very different roles. Her main role is the daughter of Marilyn who helps set up many of the pranks played on Abby. She is happily married and enjoys a good bit of mischief.

Derek, Zombie Butler, and Masked Man:

30s-40s male, plays multiple roles namely Marilyn's son-in-law. He is up for a laugh, but begins to think the women are carrying things too far. As the Zombie Butler, he is ghoulish and domineering. He acts as an emcee/tour guide for the haunted house.